

Greenfarm

Greenfarm is a leading plant-based food manufacturer based in Johor, Malaysia. It specialises in both vegan and vegetarian food products made from both soy and mushrooms.

Founded in 1989, Greenfarm has gone from strength to strength, developing its own proprietary technology along the way to allow for much improved texture and taste of its products. Following its acquisition in 2019 by Wilmar International Limited, Greenfarm's products can today be found all over the world.
