

Guillermo Molina Acosta

Education:

UNAM National Autonomous University of Mexico (Chemistry Faculty)

Class 2025

Relevant coursework:

I have experience in organic chemistry, working with a group of researchers and gathering data to analyze for further interpretation and tendency finding.

I have joined plenty of economics classes and project management courses, which focus on the engineering part which include political, environmental, and budget management aspects within the projects.

Skills:

Advance knowledge on windows packaging.

Huge problem solver.

Time efficient and great managing resources.